

Nominations Committee Report May 2026

The Nominations Committee of the Friends of the Guelph Public Library is pleased to recommend the appointment of the following individuals to the Board of Directors:

1. Diana Artuso

Diana Artuso is a seasoned financial executive with over three decades of experience in finance, management, and system implementation. For the past 25 years, she has held progressive roles in accounting and finance within the Retirement and Long-Term Care sectors. Diana is recently retired and volunteers for several organizations. She is a founding Board member (Treasurer) and Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee of Chartwell Wish of a Lifetime, a registered charity that grants wishes to seniors in Canada, and Accountant/Treasurer for a small non-profit sports organization. Diana and her husband are Guelphites, and raised their family in Guelph. She is excited to bring her skills and experience to support the FGPL in delivering its strategic goals and contributing at the Board level.

2. Jenna Cauley

Jenna Cauley (she/her) is a registered social worker who completed her Master of Social Work at Wilfrid Laurier University and her Bachelor of Applied Science in Adult Development at the University of Guelph. During her studies and post-graduate career, she worked with several local organizations, including Homewood Health, Family and Children's Services of Guelph and Wellington County, and St. Joseph's Health Centre Guelph. Jenna is currently on maternity leave. Outside of work, Jenna enjoys reading and listening to audiobooks, visiting Guelph's local coffee shops, and exploring the city's beautiful nature trails with her family.

The Nominations Committee believes that the appointment of Diana Artuso and Jenna Cauley will strengthen the FGPL Board's ability to support the Guelph Public Library and its vital work in the community.

Respectfully submitted,

Nominations Committee – Nethmi Kulatilake, James Broadley, Ian Findlay
