MAY 1 ...

Broadway Bound

JORDAN KLAPMAN, music historian, will bring Broadway Musicals to life through story-telling, PowerPoint slides, and performance: from Showboat to Oklahoma, West Side Story to Fiddler on the Roof. Meet Hammerstein, Rodgers and Hart, Sondheim and Andrew Lloyd Webber — the people who created the genre. With chanteuse BRENDA LEWIS and Jordan, you'll also enjoy a sing-along. (Free Admission)

MAY 15 ...

Cheese, Pray, Love: Talk & Taste

We'll explore the world of delectable cheeses through story-telling, demonstrations and tastings. Connect your inner foodie with your favourite fromage — the tastiest, the tried and true, the traditional and the new. ANDREW WHEELER, head cheese-monger at the TOMME Cheese Shop, will take us behind the cheese counter, introducing us to the artisans responsible for one of the world's favourite addictions and giving us a glimpse into the life of a curd nerd. ($5 Donation at Door)
